

Zoya's Legacy of Hope*

About the Fund

Leave a legacy on behalf of Colorado premature babies! When Zoya Dickins Miller founded Newborn Hope (November Noel) in 1973, her vision was to create resources for babies and families impacted by prematurity. In Colorado, one in every eight babies is born pre-term (at least three weeks early). Premature babies face costly feeding, respiratory and neurological challenges among others. To honor Zoya, Newborn Hope has established Zoya's Legacy of Hope, a fund to sustain the important work that Zoya began so many years ago. A generous donation from the Estate of Richard L. Ducommun was the initial gift.

About Planned Giving

There are many ways you can support Newborn Hope in your estate plan through planned giving which can be arranged easily and modified to address your changing needs. Your current lifestyle will not be altered in any way and there is no minimum planned gift amount to join Zoya's Legacy of Hope.
